ORDER OF SERVICE

OPENING HYMN

[Tune: Nicaea; Words: Reginald Heber (1783-1826)]

Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God almighty!
Early in the morning
our song shall rise to thee;
holy, holy, holy,
merciful and mighty,
God in three persons,
blessèd Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy!
All the saints adore thee,
casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
cherubim and seraphim
falling down before thee,
which wert, and art,
and evermore shall be.

Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name
in earth and sky and sea;

Holy, holy, holy,
merciful and mighty,
God in three persons,
blessèd Trinity!

OPENING RESPONSES

The priest says

Grace, mercy and peace from God and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

The priest welcomes everyone and introduces the service.

Eternal God, to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden;
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collect for Racial Justice Sunday

The priest says

Merciful God,
you are righteous and love justice:
stir the hearts of your people that,

rejoicing in our diversity,
the wrongs of the past may be faced honestly,
and, by your grace, may we seek today the peaceable kingdom of your son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Please sit.

FIRST READING

Romans 8.18-25

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Listen for what the Spirit is saying.

Thanks be to God.

During the Psalm, the Gospel is carried in procession down the central aisle of the church where it is read among the people. Please turn and face the Gospel as it passes.

PSALM 136 vv.1-9, 23-end

*Response: For God's mercy endures for ever.

Please remain standing.

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 6.25-end

The cantor sings and all repeat

*Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The reader says

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

The cantor sings and all repeat

Glory to you O Lord. Glory to you O Lord.

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?' For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. "So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

The cantor sings and all repeat

Praise to you O Christ. Praise to you O Christ.

The cantor sings and all repeat

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

SERMON

The Revd Dr Mariama Ifode-Blease

A period of silence is kept for personal reflection.

Please stand.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from the Iona Community)

We believe in God, maker and sustainer of all life.

We believe in God beside us, Jesus Christ,
the word made flesh,
born of a woman, servant of the poor,

tortured and nailed to a tree.
A man of sorrows, he died forsaken.
He descended into the earth to the place of death.
On the third day he rose from the tomb.
He ascended into heaven,
to be everywhere present,
and his kingdom will come on earth.

We believe in God within us,
the Holy Spirit of Pentecostal fire, life-giving breath of the Church,
Spirit of healing and forgiveness,
source of resurrection and of eternal life.
Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Led by a member of the congregation.

The deacon says

Let us pray for the world, for the church, for all in need and for those who have asked for our prayers.

Please kneel or sit.

THE PEACE

The priest says

Christ is our peace.
If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation.
The old has passed away:
Behold, everything has become new.

The deacon says

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The priest says

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Please share the Peace with your neighbours if you are in the building, and in the YouTube chat box if you are online.

OFFERTORY HYMN

[Tune: Melita; Words: Brian Wren (b.1936)]

Great God, your love has called us here, as we, by love, for love were made.
Your living likeness still we bear,
though marred, dishonoured, disobeyed;
we come, with all one heart and mind,
your call to hear, your love to find.

Great God, in Christ you call our name and then receive us as your own, not through some merit, right or claim but by your gracious love alone.
We strain to glimpse your mercy-seat and find you kneeling at our feet.

Then take the towel, and break the bread, and humble us, and call us friends.
Suffer and serve till all are fed, and show how grandly love intends to work till all creation sings, to fill all worlds, to crown all things.

Great God, in Christ you set us free your life to live, your joy to share.
Give us your Spirit's liberty to turn from guilt and dull despair and offer all that faith can do while love is making all things new.

PRAYER AT THE PREPARATION OF THE TABLE

The priest says

God of light:
look on us in mercy;
draw us from hatred to love;
from sorrow to feasting.
Make the frailty of our prayers
a dwelling place for your glory.
Amen.

GATHERING SONG

All are invited to gather round the altar. Should you need to sit, please use any of the benches or seats around the altar at the front of the church.

While moving to the altar, please join in singing ...

Here in this place new light is shining,
now is the darkness vanished away.

See in this space our fears and our dreamings brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in and hold us for ever.
Gather us in and make us your own.
Gather us in all peoples together,
fire of love in our flesh and our bone.

The priest leads the Church's Thanksgiving for Creation and Redemption in Christ ...

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

The priest continues the Church's prayer of thanksgiving ...

hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

The Bread is broken and the priest says

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The priest says

This is the table of Christ.

It has been made ready for those who love God,
and those who want to love more.

So come; you who have much faith and you who have little.

You who have been to this sacrament often and you who have not been for some time.

You who have tried to follow Christ and you who have failed.

Come. It is Christ who asks us to meet him here.

THE COMMUNION

During Communion, the Lay Singers and Singing Scholars will sing Jesu, Joy of Our Desiring, music by J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of glory,
you nourish us with your Word
who is the bread of life:
fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer.
Amen.

HYMN

[Tune: Mannheim; Words: James Edmeston (1791-1867)]

Lead us, heav'nly Father, lead us o'er the world's tempestuous sea;
guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us for we have no help but thee;
yet possessing ev'ry blessing
if our God our Father be.

Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
all our weakness thou dost know,
thou didst tread this earth before us,
thou didst feel its keenest woe;
lone and dreary, faint and weary,
through the desert thou didst go.

Spirit of our God, descending, fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
love with ev'ry passion blending, pleasure that can never cloy;
thus provided, pardoned, guided,
nothing can our peace destroy.

THE BLESSING

The priest says

May God give you grace to follow the light of Christ, wherever you are led and however long the road.
And the blessing of God almighty: Creator, Christ and Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you on this day and for ever.
Amen.

The deacon says

Go in the peace of Christ.
Thanks be to God.
